MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Perhaps the best way to categorize 2011 is with the word "growth." PEI Kids' programs and services grew; the number of Mercer County children and families we reached grew; and our partnerships throughout the community to keep children safe and prevent child sexual abuse expanded in a very real way. Making all of this possible were our generous donors, who increased in both number and support.

Throughout 2011, PEI Kids continued to do what we do best -- provide effective and child-focused Prevention, Education and Intervention services in the areas of child sexual abuse, juvenile crime, foster care visitations, anti-bullying and anti-gang efforts. Our counselors, educators and program staff helped more than 16,000 local children and their families; presented workshops in 65 Mercer County schools; and supervised more than 1,600 visits between foster children and their biological family members.

We added two new and important family-centered programs -- Creating Lasting Family Connections, which offers parents and their children on probation an opportunity to deepen their family bond, promote positive discipline and enhance personal responsibility and respect for others; and a special mother-daughter support group for child victims of sexual abuse and their mothers/female caregivers.

PEI Kids is proud to have been appointed as the lead agency for the newly formed Greater Mercer County Coalition to Prevent Child Sexual Abuse. The Coalition comprises community leaders who have joined together with the common goal of educating adults in Mercer County on how to recognize when a child may have been sexually abused, with a further goal of educating the adult community on how to appropriately respond in order to keep our children safe.

We have much work to do and know that 2012 will, with your help, be one of even further growth for our agency. Together, we will continue to work toward PEI Kids' mission of promoting and maintaining a safe environment for all children.

We thank you for joining us in this effort.

Board President

PEI Kids Leads the Greater Mercer Coalition to Prevent Child Sexual Abuse

At a December 8, 2011, press conference on the steps of the New Jersey State Capitol in Trenton, Prevent Child Abuse-New Jersey and the NJ Partnership to Prevent Child Sexual Abuse officially named PEI Kids as the lead agency of the Greater Mercer Coalition to Prevent Child Sexual Abuse.

The Greater Mercer Coalition represents all 13 municipalities in Mercer County and includes partners from the medical community, child welfare agencies, law enforcement, educators and the media. Working with three other statewide coalitions to replicate the State of Massachusetts' "Enough Abuse" campaign in New Jersey, Coalition members will work to provide every adult who lives in or works in Mercer County with the knowledge and skills they need to put an end to the silence surrounding child sexual abuse.

"The outpouring of support and commitment to this Coalition is remarkable and indicative of the fact that there is a wide commitment to stopping the horror of child sexual abuse," stated Penny Ettinger, Executive Director of PEI Kids. "Working with the State Coalition to Prevent Child Sexual Abuse, PEI Kids will lead the Greater Mercer Coalition to Prevent Child Sexual Abuse in stopping child sexual abuse, ensuring high quality services for child victims and their families, and continuing to educate children and teens on ways to protect themselves."

To learn more about PEI Kids' services and the Coalition, please call 609-695-3739 or visit www.peikids.org. All reports of abuse will be kept strictly confidential.

AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION....

As part of PEI Kids' efforts with the Greater Mercer Coalition to Prevent Child Sexual Abuse, we will be sharing Prevention Tips from the ENOUGH ABUSE Campaign throughout the community. Please share them with others.

PREVENTION Tip: STAY ALERT for Possible Behavioral Signs of Abusers

People who sexually abuse children are often described as nice and likeable, and may be experts at gaining your confidence. They often "groom" a child or family over time, allowing them to build trust and gain access to their target. They sometimes choose work that gives them "cover" at schools, youth groups, sports teams and other places where children live and play. There is no foolproof checklist of behaviors to help you definitely spot a potential child sexual abuser. However, the following behaviors have been identified as warning signs or an indication that you may need to begin asking some questions.

HAVE YOU SEEN THESE BEHAVIORAL SIGNS IN ADULTS WHO INTERACT WITH YOUR CHILDREN?

- Doesn't appear to have a regular number of adult friends and prefers to spend free time interacting with children and teenagers who are not his/her own;
- Finds ways to be alone with a child when adults are not likely to interrupt, e.g. taking the child for a car ride, arranging a trip, or frequently offering to baby sit, etc.;
- Ignores a child's verbal or physical cues that he or she does not want to be hugged, kissed, or tickled;
- Seems to have a different special child or teen friend of a particular age or appearance from year to year;
- Doesn't respect a child's or teen's privacy in the bathroom or bedroom;
- Gives a child or teen money or gifts for no particular occasion;
- Discusses or asks a child or teen to discuss sexual experiences or feelings;
- Views child pornography through tapes, photographs, magazines or the Internet. (In addition to being an important behavioral sign, possessing, viewing and/or selling child pornography is a criminal offense and should be reported.)

Be careful and slow in choosing whom you allow into your family's circle of trust and carefully consider placing your child with an adult in an unsupervised situation. For more information, call PEI Kids at 609-695-3739.

SPECIAL EVENTS Help Keep Children Safe

A variety of special events helped PEI Kids raise close to $70,000 to further our aspiration of "Safe Kids, Sound Futures."

"TASTING IN TITUSVILLE" (NOVEMBER 2011):

A "toast" and thanks to all the restaurants, caterers and businesses who donated their delicious food, services and time last November 4th, at the PEI Kids' "Tasting in Titusville," which raised more than $11,000. The "Champagne" sponsor for the evening was Riverside Communications Inc., a security and telecommunications company owned by Thurman Jay Gates. Additional sponsors included Reilly's Collision Center, One Simple Wish, Stephanie Will & Liz Zuckerman, Coldwell Banker of Princeton, Chris and Denise Pratico, and Tim Prime & Cathy Mosner. ## MARSILIO'S "GIRLS' NIGHT OUT" (JANUARY 2012):

PEI Kids' staffer Nicole Cody and Denise Meinster pictured at the Girls' Night Out benefit that raised more than $3,500 that evening.

Marsilio's Kitchen in West Trenton graciously hosted a fun-filled "Girls Night Out" benefit last February 7th for PEI Kids, helping us raise more than $3,500. The mastermind behind the fundraiser was Denise Meinster, co-owner of Marsilio's Kitchen. Award-winning Zanya Spa & Salon of Lambertville provided manicures, chair massages and makeup application to the ladies while they relaxed to tunes spun by DJ John Rossi and browsed vendor offerings. Participating vendors were Tea for All in Hopewell; Megan O'Donnell, a team leader for Biltmore Inspirations; jewelry and accessories were by Sue Zucchetti; Cynthia Davis, an independent fashion consultant; Visual Effects Jewelry by Barbara Averill located in Yardley; photographer and artist Andrew Wilkinson from Titusville; Jen Dougherty from CakeJemz, in Bristol, PA; Heather Butera from Pampered Chef in Hamilton; Rachel L. MacAulay from Dove Chocolate Discoveries; Jacki Pitkow from Tastefully Simple; Ginny's Fancies, specializing in chocolates in Hamilton; Ana Candles; and Parties-Rare to Well Done. Ann Laurie Fratticcioli of Time Well Spent in Allentown and Kellyann Schafer of Task Complete in Bucks County volunteered for the evening.

"CHILDREN OUR GREATEST TREASURE" DINNER AUCTION (April 2012):

More than 200 people attended our 21st Annual Dinner Auction on April 22nd at the Greenacres Country Club in Lawrenceville. This year's dinner was PEI Kids' biggest fundraising event to date, netting more than $55,000. Featured donations included art, fine jewelry, vacation get-aways, spa treatments and tickets to The Daily Show with Jon Stewart, the U.S. Open, and Thunder and Phillies baseball games. During the evening, PEI Kids honored The College of New Jersey's (TCNJ) Bonner Center as a valued community partner. Since 2009, student scholars from the Center have donated more than 1,800 hours of mentoring to PEI Kids' juvenile intervention programs that help youth on probation.

PEI Kids also named four of its most dedicated supporters -- George M. Gill, Dolores R. and Vincent A. Piacente and Keith Smith -- as PALS (People Appreciated for Long Service). The PALS program began in 2010 to recognize special friends who have contributed more than 10 years of time and resources to advance PEI Kids' mission.

We would like to thank the following top event sponsors: Tom and Fran Bartlett; Marty and Beth Deitchman; NJM Insurance Group; The Tuchman Foundation; AAA Mid-Atlantic;

Words From A New Pal

"I initially became involved with PEI Kids in 1994. I'm a survivor of a childhood abduction sexual assault. While my assault was a secret for over three decades, my desire to help other victims while I lived in silence compelled me to become involved with causes that protected kids. Twenty years later, I am still involved with PEI Kids because of the great work being done by incredible people dedicated to preventing sexual abuse. PEI Kids does life-altering work to help child victims gain the strength and hope they need to make the transition from sexual assault victim to survivor."

Welcome New Donors!

The TJX Foundation supported our Crisis Intervention for Child Victims of Sexual Abuse program for the first time in 2011. The TJX Foundation supports programs providing basic-need services to disadvantaged women, children and families in communities where The TJX Companies, Inc. (which operates Marshalls, Home Goods and T.J. Maxx stores in the U.S.) do business.

The Nordson Corporation Foundation, supported us with a grant toward our Comprehensive Juvenile Offenders Outreach Services (CJOOS) program. Based in Westlake, OH, and with an office in Robbinsville, NJ, Nordson is dedicated to improving the quality of life in our communities by improving educational outcomes that enable individuals to become self-sufficient, active participants in the community.

The Bunbury Company, based in Hopewell, NJ, provided PEI Kids with new general operating funding, which we can apply to the overall costs of fulfilling our aspiration of “Safe Kids, Sound Futures!” Primarily assisting organizations in Mercer County, the Bunbury Company focuses on educational, environmental, cultural, community building and social service programs, especially those that positively impact the quality of life within the community.
